ONLY 350 ACRES

Remaining Unsold of the Hickey Tract, Two Miles East of Loomis, Surveyed and Subdivided into 20-acre Tracts.

THE SOIL IS DEEP AND RICH, IS MOSTLY cleared, which alone costs from $15 to $30 per acre, consequently adding that amount to these lands, aside from time required in clearing, the land being ready to cultivate. That portion uncleared has but little underbrush. The wood will pay expense of clearing. Mostly level; no waste land; every acre can be utilized; several springs in various parts of the tract; all can be brought under irrigation, the ditch adjoining the land, although the trees in this vicinity do better without it, owing to the richness of the soil. Price, $30 to $50 per acre, according to choice. Terms, one third cash; deferred payments, 6½ per cent. per annum. Mr. Thomas Chatfield, the owner, is always upon the land, and will take pleasure in taking the intending purchaser to and from the depot at Loomis. The earliest fruits this year were produced in this vicinity.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
Smith's Tonic Syrup.
FOR THE CURE OF FEVER AND AGUE,
Or CHILLS and FEVER,
AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.
The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.

LAST NIGHT'S NEWS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

DOMESTIC.

Congress This Week.

WASHINGTON, July 4th.—The programme outlined for the conduct of business in the House during the coming week is made up of appropriation bills and land grant forfeiture bills. When the House meets to-morrow, the Appropriations Committee will make an effort to have the regular suspension day passed over, in order to continue the consideration of the deficiency appropriation bill. Before final action is reached on that measure, the fortifications appropriation bill will have been placed on the calendar. As the committee has cut down the appropriations far below the departmental estimates in preparing that bill, its consideration in the House is likely to lead to an extended debate. The Public Lands Committee expects to secure action upon some of its grant land forfeiture bills about the middle of the week, and towards its close it is probable that while awaiting the conference reports, the House may act upon the Reagan interstate commerce bill and Morrison's surplus resolution. Two evenings will be allotted to the Committee of Public Buildings, which has bills appropriating four and a half millions of dollars in the aggregate already on the calendar.

The time of the Senate during the week will probably be devoted to the river and harbor bill, the naval appropriation bill and the oleomargarine bill. The caucus planned to devote the last of the week to executive business, but failed to carry out its purpose. It is understood that the case of Solicitor Goode, adversely reported from the Judiciary Committee, is the first and knottiest of the problems with which the executive body will attempt to wrestle. The work may be attempted this week if Senator Hoar, who has the matter in charge, returns to Washington in time.

Secretary Manning's Movements.

WASHINGTON, July 4th.—Secretary Manning, accompanied by his wife and daughter, his private Secretary, Mr. Brennan, and Mr. Miller, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, arrived in this city last night from Hot Springs, Virginia. The train was about an hour behind time in arriving here. The President, Postmaster-General and Mrs. Vilas, Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Fairchild, Private Secretary Lamont and a number of officials of the Treasury Department were awaiting its arrival, and boarded the Secretary's private car. Quite a reception followed, the Secretary shaking hands with and receiving the congratulations of visitors for about ten minutes, after which he retired with the President to one of the staterooms, where they had a long talk. When the President left the car it was attached to the New York train. Treasurer Jordan accompanied the Secretary to New York, where Mr. Manning and his family will remain for two or three days before going to the Secretary's home at Albany. Manning seems to have almost entirely recovered from his recent severe illness, and last night appeared to be in excellent spirits.

The Appropriation Bills.

WASHINGTON, July 4th.—Following is the position of the six regular appropriation bills, which still await the action of Congress: The legislative bill has passed both Houses, and awaits the action of the conferees. The river and harbor bill is unfinished business in the Senate. The naval bill has been reported by the Senate Committee on Appropriations, and is upon the Senate calender. The sundry civil bill is under consideration in the House, and the fortifications bill has not yet been reported from the House committee.

A Crank at the White House.

WASHINGTON, July 4th.—This evening a man, evidently insane, called at the White House and asked to see the President. He was told that he could not see him until to-morrow. He insisted upon being admitted, but finally went away. Before reaching the gate of the White House grounds he dropped upon his knees and began to yell. Two policemen had all they could do to take him into custody. A large knife was found in his clothes. He was taken to the station-house and locked up, where he tried to kill himself.

Famous Philanthropist Coming.

WASHINGTON, July 4th.—Miss Clara Barton, the famous philanthropist, who has been in poor health for some time, has gone West, to be absent a couple of months. She will spend a few days in Chicago, and then go to St. Paul to attend the annual meeting of the Associated Charities. From there, by easy stages, she will go to San Francisco, to attend the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Her health has been so poor that Miss Barton takes the long journey reluctantly; but San Francisco has been so urgent, and the Grand Army boys have pressed her so strongly, that she has finally consented, and it is her intention to go by the Union Pacific and return by way of Portland and the Northern Pacific. Special arrangements have been made for her comfort and pleasure en route.

The Hop Crop of Central New York.

UTICA, July 4th.—Serious damage is being done to the hop crop of central New York by vermin and blight, known as honey dew. Hops are not yet in blow, and the full extent of the damage cannot yet be told. The growers are considerably alarmed, and the price of old hops, of which there are a good many in store, has doubled within a month.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, July 4th.—A special from Canajoharie says: Reports from the Otsego, Montgomery and Schoharie counties hopyards say that the vines are covered with lice from the top of the strings to the bottom of the poles. Honey dew is also found wherever lice are, and this is fully as detrimental as lice. The appearance of lice on the hop vines in the early part of July leaves no hope for the crop, and unless some sudden and unforeseen change occurs, there will be very few hops to harvest. The leaves attacked by lice curl and dry up, and where the hops attempt to burr the vine is entirely consumed. Mold follows in the hops before they mature, and those that do weather these difficulties are lacking in lupuline substance. While 4 to 7 cents was paid for 1885 hops two weeks ago, 12 and 15 cents are now offered, and as high as 18 cents has been paid for old hops the past week.

Cowhided and then Shot.

CHARLESTON (S. C.), July 4th.—On the 1st of June, in Barnwall county, John Steadly was publicly cowhided by W. T. Connelly and A. L. Lott, for circulating slanderous reports about Connelly's sister Emma. At Hunter's chapel church this morning, while the Sunday-school was in session, Steadly was shot and killed by Emma Connelly, who gave herself up to the authorities after the shooting.

Deadly Disease Among Cattle.

LITTLE ROCK, July 4th.—On the cattle ranges of Lonake and Prairie counties a deadly disease has developed among the cattle, which are dying by scores. The exact nature of the disease has not yet been ascertained by the veterinary surgeons, but it resembles somewhat the Texas fever, which has now become epidemic, carrying off cattle by scores.

Anarchists Convicted.

MILWAUKEE, July 4th.—To-night, after having been out twenty-three hours, the jury in the trial of the Anarchist leaders, Frank Hirth, Carl Simon and Anton Palm, found them guilty of conspiring to burn the Court-house and destroying the records, and of inciting a mob to riot.

The New Cardinal.

BALTIMORE, July 4th.—Cardinal Gibbons, Mgr. Straneiro, the Papal ablegate, and Mgr. Allen, of New Orleans, attended the observances of the Feast of St. Peter at St. Peter's Church this morning. High mass was sung by Father Dungan, and the sermon was preached by Father O'Keefe, of Norfolk, Va. All the celebrants wore red vestments in honor of the Cardinal, who occupied a throne near the altar.

FOREIGN.

English Politics.

LONDON, July 4th.—The Gladstonians are elated over the decisive action of their victories in Dundee. They are confident that they will maintain their hold on Scotland. The Gladstonian agents report that the agricultural vote is safe for the ministerialist party. They say that the laborers' meetings show unabated faith in Mr. Gladstone, and concurrence in the belief that the granting of home rule to Ireland would relieve the English market of Irish labor. Jessie Collings will stump the midland counties, and try to persuade the laborers to the contrary. The Gladstonian prospects in the metropolis are dark, as the Liberal Unionists are giving a warm support to the Conservatives.

DISCOURAGED LIBERALS.

LONDON, July 4th.—The results of yesterday's voting here has still further discouraged the Liberals, and very few of them retain the hope of victory.

Beecher in London.

LONDON, July 4th.—Beecher's visit has stirred up a tremendous furore in Protestant circles. Appeals for tickets to the City Temple to-day were unexampled in number and importunity. It is estimated that the number of applicants who were denied admission for want of room was sufficiently large to have filled ten Temples. Hundreds of persons, who considered themselves fortunate in being able to gain admission, underwent physical suffering by being crushed in the aisles from which they will not recover for several days. Those who found room in that part of the church in which were seated Mrs. Beecher and Mrs. Parker, wife of the pastor of the City Temple, indulged in considerable comment upon the contrast between the attire of the two ladies. Mrs. Parker was conspicuously arrayed in a fashionable costume of satin, while Mrs. Beecher was very plainly attired in sober black. Miss Ellen Terry sat immediately beneath the pulpit in a garden chair, and followed intently the discourse of the American divine, joining heartily in an occasional outburst of mirth, which Beecher's wit provoked. The text of the sermon was "The Greatest of These is Love."

"The Fourth" in Mexico—Railway Subsidy.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 4th.—The American colony here celebrated the Fourth of July by a ball on Saturday night, which was largely attended by resident and visiting American. Many distinguished Mexicans were in attendance. The national standard of Mexico is displayed on the Mexican Government buildings in honor of the day.

The subsidy to the Mexican National Railway Company began July 1st with a trifle over one-half per cent. over the customs revenue. The percentage will be increased January 1st to three-quarters of one per cent., and on July 1st, of next year, to one and one-half per cent.

Letter from Bishop Monogue.

Bishop Monogue, of the Sacramento diocese, has issued the following letter:

Dearly Beloved Brethren: We have been so often called upon to alleviate the distress of Ireland, and as often we have, according to our limited means and resources, responded to the distressing appeal. Sometimes we have individually, and sometimes more or less collectively, responded. We have continually cherished the hope that through Divine Providence a bright and cheerful day would soon dawn for Ireland, and that such painful and periodical appeals to the charitable for her distressed children should forever cease.

The dark and sombre clouds which for centuries have overshadowed that fair and beautiful island, and held its struggling children in despondence and despair, seem at last dissipated by brilliant and hopeful rays, and are now hovering about without vitality or centralization. May God grant it to be so!

Even in this disorganization there are many and powerful enemies to be encountered. Opulence, class, aristocracy and bigotry: royal hereditary titles and attachments, and landlordism, are erecting their strongholds and barricades against freedom's paths and aspirations. Let us now in freedom's name, and in the name of oppressed and suffering humanity, cheerfully give our mite to offset this unfair, ungenerous and unjust opposition. A final struggle is now approaching, the aspirations of liberty-loving people resound in our ears, the future weal or woe of Ireland may be in our hands, and decided by our magnanimity. Coercion, persecution, and even extermination, have for centuries had their full scope and sway. They have failed. The children of St. Patrick are not only living, but full of hope and joyful expectation.

Queen Elizabeth's Viceroy, in his message to his royal sovereign, said: "Your Majesty will soon have nothing in Ireland to reign over but ashes and dead bodies."

Providence has preserved this people against all the efforts of a powerful Government, against barbarous oppression and savage cruelty. Make one more effort, dear priests and people, for these noble children struggling for their homes and firesides, for their liberty and the inalienable rights of man. In every important undertaking success requires system. That this most serious object may not be aimless, and that all who feel disposed to give a helping hand may be assured of proper action and satisfaction, we exhort you to send your subscriptions to Rev. Father Dalton, Grass Valley, Nevada county, California. He will hand them over to me, and I shall forward them to the proper center, where they will be duly, properly and publicly acknowledged. This should be done within a month to be effective.

In union there is strength, and though we contribute but the widow's mite, even that will entitle us to have our names enrolled on the list of freedom's children, and emblazoned on the glorious escutcheon of liberty.

PATRICK MONOGUE,
Bishop of Grass Valley.
Grass Valley, June 28, 1886.

California Fruit in Chicago.

[By telegraph.]

CHICAGO, July 3d.—The California apricots and plums received here during the past week were all in excellent condition, but nearly all the peaches were in bad order. All "Played Out."

"Don't know what ails me lately. Can't eat well, can't sleep well. Can't work, and don't enjoy doing anything. Ain't really sick, and I really ain't well. Feel all kind o' played out, some way." That is what scores of men say every day. If they would take Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" they would soon have no occasion to say it. It purifies the blood, tones up the system and fortifies it against disease. It is a great anti-bilious remedy as well.

Petroleum V. Nasby.

D. R. Locke, Petroleum V. Nasby, editor Toledo "Blade," writes: "I had on a fore-finger of my right hand one of those pleasant pets, a 'run-around.' The finger became inflamed to a degree unbearable and swollen to nearly twice its natural size. A friend gave me Henry's Carbolic Salve, and in twenty minutes the pain had so much subsided as to give me a fair night's rest, which I had not had before for a week. The inflammation left the finger in a day. I consider it a most valuable article."

RUN OVER AND KILLED.—At Woodland last Saturday a man named George Alfred Pherson attempted to jump on freight train No. 22, coming this way, while it was in motion, but missed his footing and was run over and killed, his body being badly mangled. Coroner Krellenberg will hold an inquest in the case to-day.

The residence of H. C. Ross, on the Cosumnes river, was destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon, June 26th. The family were in this city when the blaze was discovered by harvest hands at work in an adjoining field, who only arrived in time to save a few articles of clothing. The origin of the fire is unknown. The insurance policy on the building had expired four or five days previous to the fire, and had not been renewed.

The barn of Joseph Wilman, a ranchman living near Dunnigan, Yolo county, was destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon. It was well filled with hay, and also several tons of barley, a bale of sacks, a seed-sower and other farming implements. Loss, about $1,500.

Carl Schurz has been making a speech on the subject of the progress of reform under the Cleveland Administration. For obvious reasons, it was one of the shortest addresses that he ever delivered.—Globe-Democrat.

Yachting at Santa Cruz.

SANTA CRUZ, July 4th.—The annual regatta of the Pacific Yacht Club, from Santa Cruz to Monterey and return, was sailed to-day, and was a grand success. The sea was fine, and the wind favorable. The yachts all started at 10:45 A. M., and turned the stake boat in the following order: Lurline, 1:57; Aggie, 2:00; Halcyon, 2:05; Nellie, 2:10—and reached the finish as follows: Aggie, 4:56; Lurline, 5:01; Halcyon, 5:05; Nellie, 5:34. Both actual and corrected time, make the Aggie winner by 7 minutes, Lurline second and Halcyon third. The Casco sailed to Monterey, but did not return. The prizes, donated by citizens of Santa Cruz, will be presented this evening.

Corner Stone Laid—Fine Weather.

SANTA CRUZ, July 4th.—The corner stone of the new Catholic Church in this place was laid this afternoon, with imposing ceremonies. Rev. Bishop Mora officiated, assisted by Vicar-General Pendergast and several other priests. The new edifice is to be of brick, to cost $25,000.

The weather is perfect, and the prospects for the celebration to-morrow are very fine.

Los Angeles Notes.

LOS ANGELES, July 4th.—Late last night the wife of J. M. Griffith, a lumber dealer, and an old resident of this city, died suddenly. Deceased had been sick the past five or six years, but no serious fears of immediate death had been entertained.

To-day the San Diego Baseball Club played against nine men of this city. At the close the score stood: Los Angeles 20, San Diego 2. The victorious local club will play against Santa Ana to-morrow.

The city since sundown has been a blaze of rockets, the streets full of people, and the noise of exploding crackers and bombs deafening. Several runaways have taken place, but so far no serious casualties are reported.

The California Southern Railway have two gangs of men grading between Riverside and Anaheim. The line seems heading towards Santa Monica or San Pedro. The line will come to this city, probably via the Laguna branch.

Funeral of a Pioneer Resident.

DOWNIEVILLE, July 4th.—The funeral of Hon. L. Byington, one of the pioneer residents of Downieville, took place to-day, and was the most largely attended ever in this place. The funeral services were conducted by the Masonic Fraternity, and the Sierra Buttes Brass Band furnished music for the occasion.

Stabbed in the Back.

MERCED, July 4th.—Charles Porter, a sack sewer for Robt. Shaub's thrashing machine, stabbed Frank Anderson, a tableman on the same machine, in the back this morning. Porter was arrested and placed in jail, awaiting examination. Anderson's wound, though painful, is not considered fatal.

NEVADA.

The Slattery-Williams Prize Fight.

CARSON, July 4th.—The prize fight between Slattery and Williams, at the Opera House, was stopped by the police, on account of the light weight of the gloves. The audience left the building, but on new gloves being secured they returned. Slattery knocked Williams through the ropes, and the latter, falling on a water pail, was severely injured in the groin, and was taken off the stage. Slattery was declared the winner.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The Victoria Fire—Marine Arrival—Political Canvass.

VICTORIA, July 4th.—The scene of last night's fire was visited by hundreds this morning. A heavy wind was blowing at the time the fire broke out, but died away soon after. To this circumstance is due the preservation of the town. The locality is thickly built up with stores, in which were valuable stocks of goods. The principal losses are: Waitt & Co., music, $18,000; insurance, $8,000. Atwell, King & Co., fancy goods, $26,000; insurance, $14,000. Carrington, crockery, $4,000. Lenz & Co., $2,000. Ofner, buildings, $15,000. The fire broke out in the basement of Waitt & Co.'s store. The cause is unknown. Several thieves were captured while stealing goods.

The British bark Chevy Chase, 207 days from Liverpool, arrived last night. Her arrival is opportune, as she brings tin and other supplies for canneries.

The political canvass grows in warmth as the day of holding draws near.

First Through Train on the Canadian Pacific.

NEW WESTMINSTER, July 4th.—The first through mail and express and passenger train over the Canadian Pacific Railway from Montreal arrived at Port Moody promptly on schedule time, 12 noon, having made the trip in 134 hours. The train was met at the wharf by about 1,500 excursionists from Victoria, Nanaimo, New Westminster and other points. The reception was a very enthusiastic one, and speeches of congratulation and welcome were made by Hon. William Smithe, the Premier; Mayor Fell, of Victoria; Mayor Dickinson, of New Westminster; Mayor MacLean, of Vancouver, and J. T. Scott, of Port Moody, which were responded to by Henry Abbott, General Superintendent of the Pacific Division. Among the 150 passengers on the train, which was composed of two baggage cars and four coaches, were Chief Inspector Dewe, of the Dominion Postal Service, and W. McLeod, Inspector for Manitoba and the Northwest Territory. Trains will now run regularly, coming west daily except Saturday, and going east daily except Monday. Instructions have been issued for the immediate completion of the New Westminster branch line, and it is fully expected that trains will be running to this city in three weeks' time. Work on the Vancouver and English Bay extension has been temporarily suspended, owing to difficulties with land-owners regarding the right of way.

THE TERROR'S PRIZES.

The Trifling Offenses that Caused the Seizure of Three Schooners.

[By Telegraph.]

HALIFAX, July 3d.—The cruiser Terror captured two more American fishing schooners last night at Sand Point, near Shelburne, and took them up the latter harbor this morning. The schooners captured are the George W. Cushing and C. B. Harrington, both of Portland, Me.

Few particulars have as yet reached here from Shelburne respecting the seizure of the schooners City Point, C. B. Harrington and George W. Cushing. All these vessels belong to Portland, Me., and are understood to be charged with the similar offense—of permitting men to land or taking water on board before reporting at the local Custom-house. It is asserted that Captain Jewett, of the Cushing, had been ashore, bargaining for bait but did not purchase it. Consul-General Phelan has received official confirmation of the three seizures, and has also got dispatches from the Captains of the Cushing and Harrington, announcing the fact that two men who landed at Shelbourne from the City Point on Wednesday evening were natives of that town. Three others belonging to the same vessel, two of them Maine men and the other a resident of Queens county, Nova Scotia, went ashore later in the evening. Men from the cruiser Terror, by the Captain of which all these seizures were made, have been placed in charge of the schooners and additional instructions from Ottawa are awaited by Commander Quigley.

It was reported that another American fisherman of Gloucester, Mass., had been seized at Canso this evening for shipping a man, but the report proved to be only partially correct. From information received in this city it is believed the vessel was detained by the Customs Collector on such a charge, and an officer placed on board, but that the Captain's guilt was not clear and she was afterward released. A telegram received to-night from the vessel's Captain, Daniel McDonald, states that everything is all right and that he will sail to-morrow.

NEW YORK, July 4th.—A Shelburne (N. S.) special says: Yesterday the Canadian cutter Terror seized two Portland fishing vessels—the C. B. Harrington and Geo. W. Cushing. The schooner Geo. W. Cushing is a fine vessel of 61 tons. It is owned by E. G. Willard, of Portland. The C. B. Harrington is a schooner of only 21 tons, and is owned by C. A. Dwyer and W. S. Jordan of the same place. Captain Quigley of the Terror says: "I have been watching for these vessels for a day or two, and patroling the harbor at night on the lookout for them. The fishery agent at Sandy Point sent me word that the Americans were there looking for bait and supplies, so after dark I rowed six or eight miles down the harbor to where these craft were anchored. I boarded the C. B. Harrington about 10 o'clock, and found that two of the crew were then ashore. Master Fralick admitted that he had not reported at the Custom-house, so I put an armed guard on board and ordered him to bring his vessel up alongside the Terror at daylight. Next I rowed to where the Geo. W. Cushing was anchored. It was getting pretty late, and my visit was a genuine surprise. Captain Jewett admitted that he had been ashore during the day and had not entered his ship at the Custom-house. I then placed a guard on the Cushing, with instructions that she should anchor under cover of the Terror's guns at daylight. Both Captains admitted to me that they had attempted to buy bait, but failed to obtain any, although they offered a high price for it."

A dispatch from Canso says the American schooner Hereward was seized there yesterday on the charge that her Captain shipped a man. Captain McDonald denies the charge, and telegraphed to Consul-General Phelan for advice. This makes four seizures within the past twenty-four hours.

An Earthquake and a Murderer.

[S. F. Chronicle, July 4th.]

Many things have been said and written upon the subject of earthquakes and their peculiarities, but so far no person has ever had the hardihood to characterize one as being useful and beneficial to mankind. Such is the case nevertheless, and has been clearly proved so by a recent occurrence in one of the criminal Courts of this city. The incident is well worthy of being placed on record. It was on the morning of May 26th, this year, that the jury trying Harry Huff for the murder of Matthew T. Eddy returned into Court after being out all night, and asked Judge Toohy for further instructions. Just as the Judge concluded the reading of this second charge and the jury was about to retire again, a strong earthquake shock sent a tremor through the old building, accompanied by a loud rumbling noise. Among the first of the many who rushed for the door was Juror Alfred Larsen, a recent arrival from the East, now working as a clerk in a wholesale grocery-house down town. A Deputy Sheriff intercepted his flight, however, and conducted him, with the others, to the jury-room for further deliberation. Larsen's pallid cheeks, trembling lips and bulging eyes were too evident proofs of the fears and misgivings which agitated his timid soul for the other jurors, all old Californians, to resist the temptation of accomplishing a brilliant stroke of combined policy and revenge. Larsen had been holding out from the first on a verdict of acquittal, the other eleven being all for a conviction of murder in the first degree. Larsen had kept them up all night, refusing to listen to either argument or pleas, and they were naturally very much incensed about it. This earthquake shock, however, gave them the opportunity which they wanted, and the manner in which they commenced playing upon his fears was something astonishing.

"Look there, Larsen," said one of the jurors, excitedly, as he pointed to a large aperture in the plastered wall; "do you see that crack? Well, that was made by the great earthquake of '68, when so many buildings were destroyed in San Francisco."

"Yes," was the eager interruption of another, "this old death-trap was so badly shaken up at that time that those iron girders you see up there had to be put in to keep the walls together."

"I'm getting confoundedly uneasy," said some one else, "for the first shock is always followed by two or three more, and this rotten pile of masonry is liable to go crumbling and crashing to the ground at any minute. I wish I was out of here."

"My God!" cried Larsen, almost in tears, "is it so bad as that? Oh, gentlemen, what shall I do?"

"Come over to our side and agree to a verdict of murder in the first degree!" was the almost unanimous chorus. Seriously frightened as Larsen was he would not consent to this, but offered to compromise on manslaughter. To this proposition, however, the others would not agree. A short discussion ensued, which finally resulted in a compromise on murder in the second degree, and a verdict was rendered to that effect. Thus it was that a simple earthquake was instrumental in bringing about the conviction of a murderer, who was afterward sentenced to imprisonment for life.

Purify the Blood.

We do not claim that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine deserving public confidence, but we believe that to purify the blood, to restore and renovate the whole system, it is absolutely unequalled. The influence of the blood upon the health cannot be over-estimated. If it becomes contaminated, the train of consequences by which the health is undermined is immeasurable. Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, Headache, Dyspepsia, Debility, Nervousness and other "little (?) ailments" are the premonitions of more serious and often fatal results. Try

THE DAY.

All the indications are that the celebration of the national anniversary in California's capital city to-day will be one of much superiority, and of such a character as to do full honor to the occasion, and to reflect credit upon the State. It will certainly be varied and contain far more of entertaining features than commonly distinguish such celebrations. All the evidences are that the people will engage in the observance of the day with especial and fervent patriotic fervor. The reasons that should induce them to make to-day's demonstration a protest against assaults recently made upon liberty are patent to all. If there ever was one year since the close of the revolutionary war, excluding the years of the civil war, when there was more cause for patriotic manifestations than on another, it is this year. For within its half expired term have been made the first serious and meaning attacks upon the fundamental principles that underlie the whole theory and practice of free government. We have witnessed the entry among us of foreign malcontents whose first steps in the walks of new-found freedom have been to hurl the assassin's bomb against the sacred form of liberty, and whose first free utterances have been those of hate and rage against the Government that tolerates them, and secures to them all the rights they enjoy, or can, in reason, ask. We need by to-day's manifestations throughout the Union to teach these vicious Socialists and these murderous Anarchists that we have not abated one jot of our love for American institutions, and that the memory of the fathers, and our reverence for the principles for which they fought and suffered through long years of war and trial, are as bright to-day, and are cherished now even more tenderly than in any hour of the past.

A SILLY PLAN.

The folly and ludicrousness of people attempting to wrestle with questions they do not understand is vividly illustrated in the case of some members of the Council of the Federated Trades in San Francisco. At the last meeting of the Council some member introduced, among a lot of other high-sounding resolutions, this astonishing one, which was referred to a committee, that it may puzzle its brains over the "wisdom" supposed to be contained in these few lines:

Resolved, That the State of California should construct a system of flumes from the mining streams in the foothills and convey the debris to the tule lands, and reclaim them while settling the vexed debris question.

From one end of the Sacramento valley to the other this delectable bit of advice will provoke a guffaw. We expect that the committee will report the resolution back with the recommendation that the author burn it, but it may be that we count without our host. It is not safe to speculate what a body may do with such a matter, where it is possible for so silly a document to have birth. The proposition is, in brief, that the whole people of this State shall be taxed an enormous sum to collect and transport the washings of the private hydraulic mines to such public tule lands as may be found, to fill them, in order that these private operators of the hydraulic mines may still conduct their private business and pocket their personal profits at public expense. We fancy the people of California submitting to the expenditure of some millions wrung from their taxable values annually to do that which, if it were possible to do at all, should be done only by the people who create the mining debris and reap the reward. The councilman who originated the brilliant resolution very evidently has not the faintest idea of the system of hydraulic mining, or of the country affected by it; he does not know that it involves whole rivers hundreds of miles in length; he does not know that it means the mowing down of the mountain sides over areas as large as some States of the Union; he does not know that the "vexed question" is "settled;" that every Court that has considered it, has declared the business as now conducted to be a public nuisance; that the Congress of the United States has declared that it is so destructive of river navigation that there shall be expended no money on the navigable rivers affected so long as the system is tolerated; he does not know that the cost of the scheme he proposes, even if engineering science should determine it to be feasible, would amount to as much or more than the yield of the mines, and that such cost would necessitate a special tax to be levied upon all people, of all sections of the State, for the sole benefit of one industry of one section, and that an industry that is scarifying the face of nature, and rendering large areas of the State practically uninhabitable. The resolution is on a par with that other from the same author, and referred to the same committee, that Government should "give employment to all idle citizens at $5 a day of eight hours labor." A little knowledge of the functions of government, some little knowledge of the most ordinary demonstrations of political economy, would benefit the author of these two resolutions, and save the membership of the Council from some humiliation.

DANGEROUS DOCTRINE.

A writer in the Pacific enunciates this dangerous doctrine:

> Every man, irrespective of color, nationality or race, has a natural or God-given right to go to any country he may choose and to live in any country he may prefer. The right to make a home, either temporary or permanent, in any part of the world, is derived not from the body politic, but from God. The right to live in any State and make an honest living therein belongs to every man, whether of American, European or Asiatic birth.

The writer might well be called upon for his authority to speak for the Ruler of the Universe. The idea enunciated is the veriest twaddle. It springs from a morbid sentimentality and not from true desire to conserve the best interests of the races of men. Those who have the welfare of their fellow men at heart will not seek to intermingle those who are so dissimilar that both races are injured by the contact. A distinguished divine, also closely related to the Pacific, preached in this city yesterday and took occasion to say that the demand for the restriction of immigration is justified, when it is evident that the importation ss clearly antagonistic to the scheme of Anglo-Saxon civilization. He held that duty is due to our household first, and he is an enemy to his family who considers first those who have no claim upon him. And we say, it is little less than insulting, in the blaze of the light of this day, for any man to stand in the presence of those of his own race and government and system of civilization, and demand the introduction of elements into this country that, it has been demonstrated, tend only to our degradation, the subversion and demoralization of our laboring citizens and the building up of dangerous class distinctions. The lines are sharply drawn now, heaven knows, between the rich and the poor, the wage-winner and the wage-payer. We want no class introduced here that will make the labor element more servile than it is now forced to be; we want, in short, no more deeply-laid mudsills than our system of necessity demands.

BRIGHT AND GLADSTONE.

The striking thing about the recent speeches of John Bright is that they contrast so strongly with the utterances of Mr. Gladstone. The man whom of all others we looked to in England for expressions favorable to the nearest approach possible, in his day, to a pure democracy, we now find cheek by jowl with the aristocratic classes, and doing his utmost to give ascendancy to the party that will draw the sharpest line between classes. On the other hand, the man Gladstone stands to-day for a democratic principle which we in this country phrase the "right government proceeds from the consent of the governed." Gladstone would trust the democratic expression to rule in Ireland, just as we do here. Bright will not, and confesses that he has not faith in the ability of the Irish people to be governed by the rule of the majority, notwithstanding that behind that free expression would stand the Empire, with all the force, as now, to confirm and enforce right decrees, or to reverse and overthrow wrong ones. Mr. Gladstone advances, Mr. Bright retreats, upon the lines of human progression.

ANOTHER Order has been born in the West. This time it is a Law and Order League. It is intended to resist all force in the matter of strikes and boycotts, and generally to favor lawful and orderly procedure in the matter of the labor agitation. Very little is known as to the workings of the organization at this time. It claims a membership of 17,000 in Missouri already, which is rapidly augmenting. On its face it looks fair enough, but it is lamentable that there should in any part of the country be felt any need for secret organizations to aid officers in preserving the public peace. Perhaps it is not fair to say that such necessity does exist anywhere, and that the scheme of the society being to encourage a law-abiding spirit, and discourage the spirit of insubordination and the disposition to riot on the part of strikers, is to be therefore commended.

MR. GLADSTONE strikes between wind and water in his letter to Welsh voters, in which he calls attention to the fact that the Tories are perpetual wolf shouters. There has been since the party was born, he says, no good and great measure proposed in England that the Tories have been other than alarmists in their predictions concerning it. They are forever predicting the destruction of the English Government, if this or that measure is adopted, and yet though most great reforms they have opposed, have been engrafted upon the English Constitution, that intangible though sacred basis of English society exists as strong as ever, and stronger.

GOVERNOR HILL, of New York, says the purposes of the Democracy are higher and nobler than the distribution to partisans of Federal patronage. But Governor Hill stopped there, and failed to enlighten his hearers as to what these purposes are, while he made a covert assault upon the reform of the civil service, that demonstrates, despite all his protesting, that he is a spoilsman, and believes in the distribution of the offices to Democrats at all hazards. President Cleveland is pledged to carrying out the reform. Governor Hill hopes to succeed him in office, and we believe intends to pin his faith to the battle cry "to the victors belong the spoils."

THE inquiry is being made in Chicago by all the papers, "Who owns the Lake Shore and the Michigan Southern Railroad? Do the men who built and operate it own it, or do the 500 or 600 switchmen who have struck, and have used force to prevent the public traveling on the lines, and to stop the movement of freight?" Of course there is but one answer to the question. But if control is of the regalia of ownership, it looks as if the switchmen, who have not a dollar in the roads, really own it.

LABOR AT THE STATE PRISON.

Letter from Chairman of the State Prison Directors to the Governor.

On the 11th ultimo the Governor addressed a letter to the State Board of Prison Directors, in answer to petitions of the Knights of Labor, in which he recommended the discontinuance of supplying stone from Folsom and furniture from San Quentin, unless for works and institutions under State control. In answer, the following letter was addressed to the Governor, and has not until now been made public:

SAN QUENTIN, June 25, 1886.

His Excellency George Stoneman, Governor—DEAR SIR: Your communication in reference to the employment of convicts has been received and placed on file.

We have, ever since our appointment, given this subject earnest attention, and appreciate all the difficulties connected with it. We believe that the systems now pursued are in compliance with law. We believe that prisoners should not be kept in idleness, nor is such a course permitted by law. They should be worked for the benefit of the State; the Constitution requires this. We do not desire, however, to employ them in branches that will seriously cripple any industry which it would be to the interest of the State to foster.

It is absolutely necessary that certain improvements should be made to the prison buildings and grounds. From the operation of many causes, among them the continued agitation with reference to the alleged conflict between prison and free labor, the sale of many of the articles manufactured at the prisons has become unprofitable.

We believe, from the above causes, that the labor of the convicts now engaged in making curb-stones and cross-walks at Folsom, and of those employed in the furniture department at San Quentin, can, with greater advantage to the State and the industries, be utilized in making necessary improvements, and in adding to the force in the jute mill.

We, therefore, have made the necessary orders to carry these views into effect, and would at this time request you to call the matter to the attention of the next Legislature, in order that that body may clearly define the law and settle all the vexed problems connected with this subject. We have the honor to remain yours, very respectfully,

JOHN BOGGS,

Baird's Mammoth Minstrels.

I. W. Baird's Mammoth Minstrels and Royal Hand-bell Ringers will appear at the Clunie Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday evenings. As the company is not well known on the coast, the following notice, from the Baltimore American, may serve to introduce them:

"The Academy of Music has rarely held as large and well-pleased an audience as that which gathered last night to see Baird's Minstrels, and it is no exaggeration to say that a finer or more amusing minstrel performance has never been given upon its boards. The company is strong in members and vast in its resources. The music, vocal and instrumental, is even above modern minstrel music, which is always excellent, and the dancing and specialties excel in every detail anything of the kind ever seen here. Every number of the programme was encored, and the performers so cheerfully responded that the performance lasted nearly an hour longer than usual."

Celebration at Dixon.

The people of Dixon and vicinity had a good time on Saturday. There was dancing day and evening and an afternoon of horse-racing. The first race was a trot between Apex, Lucy and Kate Bender. Lucy won the first heat in 2:33½, but then got lame and Apex secured the last three heats, finishing the last in 2:42. Following this was a pacing race between Pocahontas, Shaker and Prince, which puzzled the betting fraternity greatly. Pocahontas won the first and fifth heats, Shaker the second and Prince the fourth, sixth and seventh. Best time, 2:30½; slowest, 2:40. Sandwiched in between the heats of the pacing race was a local trot between Dan, George and Baby, the former winning. Best time, 3:18.

PARDON GRANTED.—The Governor has issued a pardon to John Eausome, who was convicted of burglary in the first degree in Plumas county, in October, 1875, and sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment. Justices Thornton, McKinstry, McKee and Sharpstein petitioned for the pardon, and the State Prison Directors recommended it on the ground of faithful service and diligent work as a prisoner and important service rendered to the State in the detection of criminals.

HEALTH

Is not possible when the blood is impure, and recovery from any ailment must be slow and uncertain while that condition continues. The Blood may be corrupted by the taint of Hereditary Scrofula, and the poisons of Mercurial and Contagious Diseases, and also by impurities implanted in it through excesses in living, improper food, derangement of the digestive and assimilatory organs, and other causes. The first external evidences of such vitiation are Blackheads, Pimples, Sties, Eruptions, and Boils. Yet more serious are the symptoms showing its internal effects in depression of the Spirits, Lassitude, Weariness without effort, Headaches, Dizziness, and enfeebled circulation. Be warned in time!

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only medicine that will thoroughly purify the blood. In millions of cases, during nearly forty years in which it has been the best hope of humanity suffering from vitiation of the life-current, it has effected cures beyond the power of any other remedy. Leading physicians know its composition from the most powerful alteratives, diuretics, and tonics, and prescribe it in their practice.

THE SONG OF THE BELLS.

What say the bells as the breath of the morning
Carries their message o'er mountain and sea?
Clearly they ring, as if weariness scorning;
Gladly they ring through this Land of the Free.
As they joyfully sway,
A jubilant lay
Is borne on the breeze as the night turns to-day.

"Freedom and peace," comes the glad message sweeping,
"Govern with mercy and strength our broad land;
Here is no slave with his passionate weeping,
Lifting to heaven his manacled hand.
But his tears are all dried.
And lo! at his side
Is the fair form of Liberty, ever his guide.

"Shines the bright sun on a nation unbroken,
States linked together by harmony's chain;
Waves the dear flag, of that nation a token,
With its stars gleaming purely, and stripes without stain
Oh how fondly the air
Lifts that banner so fair,
As a mother strokes softly her babe's shining hair."

Hark! all the air mournful music is filling,
Now there are pealing sad funeral knells.
Grief-stricken hearts are with agony thrilling,
Listening still to the song of the bells.
As they solemnly toll,
What sad tidings roll
From their stern iron lips to each desolate soul?

"We toll," say the bells, "for the heroes who perished,
By sea or by land, for the country we love.
We mourn for the poor starving prisoners, who cherished
The fond hope of freedom, and found it above.
O forget not their pain,
And forever remain
As loyal and brave as that shadowy train."

Yet, Bells, speak again, and o'er plain, lake and ocean,
Wake again the still depths of the grief-burdened air;
Rouse the whole sobbing land to a deep, glad devotion—
Let not your last song be of grief and despair!
And a new song is sung
By each strong, iron tongue,
And the harmony wide o'er the nation is flung.

"O dear land! rejoice that your sons are united—
That those sons fear not death, but still dread only shame;
No longer mourn those who the old wrongs have righted,
Though you reverence always each patriot's name.
It is better to fall
At Honor's clear call,
Than to stifle and smother 'neath Fear's heavy pall.

"Then fling out your banners, and tell the proud story
Of a nation unconquered, undaunted and free,
March joyfully on, and from glory to glory,
Your progress still onward and upward shall be!
O land we revere—
Of all lands the most dear,
We welcome this morning with cheer upon cheer!"

ANNIE C. WEEKS.

TO THOROUGHLY cure scrofula it is necessary to strike directly at the root of the evil This is exactly what Hood's Sarsaparilla does by acting upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing it of all impurities, and leaving not even a taint of scrofula in the vital fluid.

Independence DAY!

110th ANNIVERSARY
—OF THE—
NATION'S BIRTHDAY!

PROGRAMME
—OF—
THE DAY WE CELEBRATE!

THE GRAND MARSHAL TAKES THIS OCcasion to announce to the public the Route of Procession, the Programme, and General Exercises that will characterize and be followed at the Celebration of the FOURTH OF JULY, which this year will be on MONDAY, July 5th (the holiday occuring on Sunday).

It is earnestly requested that all feeling of indifference will be cast aside for this day, and that merry women and children unite as one individual in making the occasion historic as a success. This is especially desirable at this Celebration, as the city will be crowded with strangers from neighboring cities and towns, and they should be accorded a joyous time, from sun up till the last feature of the Programme is enacted.

THE DAY.

Will be announced at sunrise, by a salute of thirteen guns; the salute will be repeated at noon and sundown. Company B, First Artillery, Captain Cook.

THE PROCESSION.

The Procession will be formed and move promptly at 9:30 o'clock A. M., and organizations and parties taking part in the procession must move at that hour. The various Divisions will form as follows:

First Division, on Seventh street, right resting on I street, extending south.

Second Division, on J street, right resting on Seventh, extending west.

Third Division, on J street, right resting on Seventh, extending east.

Fourth Division, on I street, right resting on Seventh street, extending east.

Fifth Division, on Eighth street, right resting on I, extending south.

The Allegorical Cars will meet at the corner of Seventh and M streets, at 8 o'clock A. M., where parties who are to occupy them will assemble and be assigned their places.

ROUTE OF MARCH.

The Procession will move as follows: From Seventh and I streets along Seventh to H, H to Tenth, Tenth to J, down J to Second, Second to K, up K to Tenth, along Tenth to M, M to Second and countermarch and come to a halt and front face; here the Grand Marshal will review the column, and on his return to the head of the column the Procession will be dismissed.

Marshals of Divisions will see that no organization leaves the line till the Grand Marshal will have reviewed the column.

THE LITERARY PROGRAMME.

Will begin at 12 M., in the Assembly Chamber, which has been kindly tendered to the city by Hon. Thos. L. Thompson, Secretary of State. The Programme will be as follows:

Those not here assigned to a place in the line will be given position on application to the Grand Marshal.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Handsome Present.

The members of Sacramento Engine Company No. 2 yesterday presented one of their number, Samuel McDonald, with a handsome silver trumpet. The present was accompanied by the following testimonial:

"There are times in the lives of men when their intercourse with those about them, friendly, social, and of a business character, entwine around them a friendship which no words seem adequate to express. It is then that appreciation assumes a tangible form, and man's worth is recognized and esteem expressed by a simple gift or souvenir, small though it may be, which carries with it an appreciation which never fails to reach the heart, and the token will live in and speak with its silent but expressive language long after the tongue of the donor has ceased to utter words of praise and commendation; years after the hearts that once went to an admired friend have ceased their pulsations and lie silent in the tomb, that receptacle that sooner or later must claim us all. Wishing to show our appreciation of a friend and comrade, our admiration for him as a man within whose honest breast beats a heart ever brimming over with kindness, brave in times of danger, yet loving and full of tender emotions when moved with sympathy, we have procured for and present you, sir, Samuel McDonald, with this beautiful silver trumpet, as a slight token of our esteem and regard. We ask you to accept it in the spirit of appreciation with which it is presented, and trust that the chain of friendship now existing between donors and recipient may ever remain unbroken; and if at the last day Gabriel should find his trumpet misplaced, a blast from the one now presented you, which we have no doubt you would loan for the occasion, would meet with a hearty response from every member of Engine Company No. 2, Sacramento Paid Fire Department." The testimonial is signed by M. A. Howard, A. Heinrich, H. Ladd, Thomas Rowe, M. Featherson, Frank Brown, J. W. Guthrie, David Barnes, J. Sullivan, J. E. Atkinson, C. S. Butler, F. T. Wilder.

County Board of Education.

The regular monthly meeting of the County Board of Education was held Saturday morning, all the members present. The first business was the election of a President of the Board.

Mr. Bishop nominated Professor Blanchard; seconded by Miss McCormack.

Miss Regan placed Professor Johnson in nomination.

Roll-call resulted as follows: For Blanchard—Miss McCormack and Bishop. For Johnson—Miss Regan; Professors Johnson and Blanchard refraining from voting.

Professor Blanchard thanked the Board for the honor conferred, and said he hoped that he would have the co-operation of the members in performing his duties.

The Chairman then appointed the following standing committees:

Course of Study—Mr. Bishop, Miss Regan and Mr. Johnson.

Rules and Regulations—Miss Regan, Miss McCormack; Blanchard, ex-officio Chairman.

Finance—Mr. Johnson, Miss McCormack and Mr. Bishop.

Mrs. Bennett was granted a renewal of her first-grade certificate.

Miss Julia Smith was granted a high school certificate on her life diploma.

A first-grade county certificate was granted Miss Mamie Sweeney on her State educational diploma.

Miss Teresa Byron was granted a renewal of her first-grade city certificate.

Miss Delia Manning was granted a first-grade county certificate on her State educational diploma. Her application for a recommendation for a life diploma was laid over till the next meeting.

Ed. C. Humphrey was granted a high school certificate on his life diploma.

Etta C. Herrman was granted a first-grade county certificate on her State Normal School diploma.

On motion, the rules and regulations of the last year were adopted as those of the newly-organized Board.

On motion, it was decided that the next regular meeting of the Board shall be held on the last Saturday in July, beginning at 10:30 A. M.

Police Court.

In the Police Court Saturday the case of Wing Chee, arrested for burglary in connection with the robbery of a freight car of hams, was stricken from the calendar, the police having become satisfied that they had been misinformed in the premises..... James Gildea, charged with being a common drunkard, was discharged, he being a hard-working man who unfortunately has a "liking" for liquor.....Gustave Slasher, a German from the country, arrested for sleeping in a railroad car, pleaded guilty and was let go on his own recognizance to appear at 1 P. M. for sentence. The Chief of Police suggested to him that it was a good chance to "skip," and, taking the hint, he remarked, as he left the station-house, "I gets right away out, you bets me!" and was seen no more.....In the cases of S. W. Austin, falsely personating another, and Eugene Avery and J. C. McGinniss conspiring against Maggie J. Hill, the evidence for the prosecution was taken, developing nothing that the public is not already familiar with, although the prosecuting witness testified. When the prosecution rested the defense moved for a dismissal, which motion was overruled. The matter then went over until to-morrow.

Board of Health.

The City Board of Health met Saturday evening. The Board of Health seems to have different ideas from those entertained by the City Trustees regarding breweries and slaughter-houses draining into the Thirty-first street canal. They hold that it is better for the health of the city that they should drain into the canal than into cesspools. They also recommend that the Board of Trustees clean out and render serviceable the canal.

From the length and scope of the report of the new Health Officer, Dr. F. L. Atkinson, it is evident that he has been busy. His report covers from the 8th of June to July 3d, and, in brief, is as follows:

Nuisances examined in Chinatown, 161; nuisances examined outside of Chinatown, 106; total, 267. Cesspools and vaults examined, 80; ventilators ordered, 24; cellars and low lots filled, 18; debris found on premises, 12; cesspools and vaults cleaned and disinfected, 38; waste-pipes and sewers repaired, 13; new cesspools and vaults inspected, 9; dead animals buried, 52.

A Hoax.—A telegraph dispatch from Davisville is going the rounds narrating that a boy at Woodland saw a brakeman of a freight train shoot a man in the breast and throw his body in a box car loaded with grain at Woodland; that subsequently two lads at Davisville, while playing among the cars on one of the side tracks, entered one loaded with wheat, and discovered clots of blood on the sacks. They further noticed an almost intolerable stench as from some dead body, by which they were speedily driven from the car. Still later, the body of a murdered man was discovered hidden among the wheat sacks at Port Costa, having a bullet wound in the center of the breast. All of which is denounced by railroad officials to be a clumsy hoax.

Joint Committee Organization.—The Joint Committee of the Imp. O. R. M. met yesterday and organized as follows: President, J. J. Nagle; Vice-President, Ed. Hopkins; Secretary, John Domingos; Treasurer, H. Winters; Committee on Cemetery—E. Hopkins, J. J. Buckley, A. Dunbar, H. Winters; Committee on Hall—H. Winters, Robt. Hunt, Con Sullivan, John Domingos; Committee on Finance—J. P. Counts, L. W. Grother, J. J. Buckley, Geo. Nichols; Committee on Rules—J. P. Counts, A. Dunbar, George Nichols, L. W. Grother.

CELEBRATION TO-DAY.

How the Nation's Anniversary is to be Observed in Sacramento.

The one hundred and tenth anniversary of the nation's birth is to be celebrated in this city to-day with unusual pomp and splendor. It is the birthday celebration of the grandest, freest, noblest nation on the earth, and the millions of freemen throughout the vast extent of our common country worship on this day at the shrine of liberty, consecrated by the blood of our revolutionary fathers, who gave us the Declaration of Independence, and pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to its support. To-day in every city, town, village and hamlet, upon the prairies, or on the high seas wherever freedom is enjoyed under the protection of the star-spangled banner, those who watched by the cradle of liberty in 1776 will be honored.

On Saturday citizens generally throughout the city began to decorate their homes, offices and business houses. The work was continued yesterday and will be completed this morning. J and K streets, from Front to Tenth, present a most handsome aspect, the immense display of bunting, flags and streamers giving the entire street a patriotic tri-colored appearance. Some of the show-windows of the stores are fixed up with patriotic designs that display much taste. One custom, peculiar to Sacramento, is to cover all the awning posts with evergreens, such as grow on the bank of the river. These are brought in by wagon-loads, and the result of their arrangement makes the sidewalks on both sides of J and K streets resemble an evergreen arbor. It is pleasant to the eye, a protection from the sun, and materially adds to the beauty of the decorations. The programme of the day's celebration appears in another column, and embraces an entire day's sport, commencing at the early dawn and continuing to the wee small hours of morn. The Trustees of the city gave $2,000 towards defraying the expenses, several hundred dollars additional was contributed by liberal citizens, and the money has been so placed as to secure the greatest enjoyment for the greatest number. Too much praise cannot be given E. G. Blessing, the Chairman of the Executive Committee, and those who assisted him, for the excellent manner, in all its details, in which this celebration has been arranged.

The day will be saluted at sunrise by Company B's battery, Captain Cook, who will fire a salute, which they will repeat at noon and in the evening.

Colonel James McNasser, the Grand Marshal, assisted by his chief aid, Richard M. Clarken, and a cavalcade of aids, will form the procession at Seventh, I and J streets, and it will move promptly at 9:30 A. M. The procession will consist of five long divisions.

The procession will move as follows: From Seventh and I streets, along Seventh to H, H to Tenth, Tenth to J, down J to Second, Second to K, up K to Tenth, along Tenth to M, M to Second and countermarch, and come to a halt and front face. Here the Grand Marsual will review the column, and on his return to the head of the column the procession will be dismissed.

First Division—Marshal, Thos. J. Scott; Brigadier-General John T. Carey and Staff; First Artillery Band; First Artillery Regiment, Colonel T. W. Sheehan, commanding; Staff mounted; National Allegorical Car—"Goddess of Liberty."

Second Division—Marshal, Hon. Robert Barnett; Sacramento Hussars, mounted, Captain Fred. Heilbron, commanding, acting as escort to his Excellency, Governor George Stoneman and the State officers; Drum Corps; Sumner Post No. 3, Grand Army of the Republic; Warren Post, No. 54, Grand Army of the Republic; Fair Oaks Post, G. A. R.; Union Veterans; Allegorical Car—"The Seal of the State;" City and County Officials in open carriages; Board of Education; Board of Health; Officers of the Day—President, Hon. John Q. Brown; Secretary, E. A. Beardslee; Chaplain, Rev. Carroll M. Davis; Orator, Hon. Henry E. Highton; Reader, W. A. Potter; Poet, Matt Clarken.

Powers, Special Aids; Mounted Butchers, Chas. Yoerk, Special Aid; Allegorical Car, "Singing the Declaration of Independence."

Fourth Division—Marshal, Frank H. Slack; Children of the Protestant Orphan Asylum in omnibuses, under charge of Special Aid Chas. M. Prodger; Allegorical Car, "Independence Bell;" Board of Directors of the California Museum Association; Ladies' Relief Corps, G. A. R.; Band of Hope; Caledonians.

Fifth Division—Marshal, Dr. G. L. Simmons, Jr.; Hussar Band; Fire Commissioners; Fire Department; Allegorical Car, "Our Public Schools;" the Trades' Display in wagons, drays and floats.

The literary exercises will take place in the Assembly Chamber of the State Capitol immediately after the parade.

At 4 P. M. will begin the regatta upon the river, which promises to be very attractive. There will be a skiff, a professional barge, a Whitehall, an amateur barge, a tub and a sailing race for liberal prizes.

THE MARDI GRAS.

At night will come the grand climax of the day's festivities, when the grand Mardi Gras procession will take possession of the streets. There is not a single doubt but that the night parade will be the finest ever witnessed in this city, if not upon the coast. The procession will form at Sixth and M streets, and will consist of three divisions, as follows:

First Division—Chief Dillman and a Squad of Police; Grand Marshal Colonel James McNasser; Chief Aid, R. M. Clarken, and Aids; Group of Nubians; Momus and his Suite; First Artillery Band; California in 1849; California in 1886—"Grapes;" Prize Float; Group of Defenders; Elves of the Fountain; Valley Forge.

Second Division—Hussar Band; Company A (City Guards); Washington Crossing the Delaware; Calla Lily; The Place Where Gold Was Discovered (Coloma); No. 3 Fire Engine, S. P. F. D.; Scene of a Burning Building; Prize Float; Crystal Caves.

Third Division—Prize Floats; Trade Displays; Civic Societies; Citizens in Carriages.

The procession will move promptly at 8 o'clock, P. M. The route of march will be from the Pavilion up Sixth to K, to Tenth, to J, to Second, to K, to Seventh, to M, to Pavilion, where the procession will be reviewed by Momus, King of Night.

After the disbandment of the Mardi Gras procession there will be a grand ball held under their auspices, in the old pavilion building, which has been handsomely fitted up for the occasion. Both bands will be in attendance and the entertainment no doubt will be a fitting wind-up for the day's festivities.

NOTES BY THE WAY.

Business men along J and K streets have agreed to burn colored lights in front of their places during the time the night procession is passing.

San Francisco and Stockton boat clubs arrived in this city yesterday, as did also the Stockton military band.

Besides the usual sunrise salute, the Independent Light Battery, C. L. Fonteneau, Captain, will fire a salute in Capitol Park at daylight.

The Knickerbocker-Alta game of baseball at the Park will be called sharply at 2 o'clock, in order that the audience may have plenty of time to see the regatta.

The Sacramento organization of California Pioneers will, as is their usual custom, observe the Natal Day with a banquet at their Hall during the afternoon. Their banquet-room is handsomely decorated and tables spread for a large number.

The Red Bluff and Folsom trains will be held until 6 P. M.

The California Museum Association on Saturday, for the first time, floated on the Crocker Art Gallery its own flag. It consists of two red stripes separated by a broad blue stripe which bears the initials, in white letters, "C. M. A." Yesterday there was floated by the city over the gallery, for the first time, a new and beautiful banner—the National stars and stripes.

Uncle John Douglas will send up a large number of hot-air balloons during the day, three of which will be of mammoth size.

The Regatta Committee held a meeting at the Capital Hotel last evening, which was attended by upwards of fifty boatmen.

The ball to be given under the auspices of the Mardi Gras Association at the old Pavilion immediately after the night procession promises to be a brilliant affair. The Caledonian Club will appear in costume, and dance the Highland fling, sword dance, etc.

Call and see the New Style Wheelock Pianos, made to order, and just received at Cooper's Music Store. Also, at the same time see the musical wonder, the Little Giant Mathushek, with iron frame. *

Leave your orders for ice cream, water ices, etc., at Peterson's, 620 J street. *

BASEBALL.

The Haverlys Victorious Yesterday—The Game To-day.

The Haverly Baseball Club and their friends arrived from San Francisco shortly before 10 o'clock yesterday morning on the steamer T. C. Walker, numbering between 500 and 600, and another 100 or more wanted to come, but the Captain of the steamer refused to take them. The players went to bed as soon as possible after leaving the landing, and consequently appeared on the diamond at the Park in fine form. President Mone, the head of the League, accompanied them. There was a very large attendance at the Park to witness the game, and it proved to be an enthusiastic but orderly assemblage, and every man making a good play found it acknowledged with applause. H. C. Chipman officiated as umpire. Pete Meegan played short stop for the Altas, and made a good impression. Hayes guarded first base, but it was generally conceded that it would have been better if Ahern had filled the position, and Hayes taken another. Both nines were white-washed in the first inning, and the Altas in the second. In the latter, Levy, of the Haverlys, hit to Barry, who held the ball too long, and when he did throw it to first Hayes failed to retain it, and had not time to get possession again before the runner reached the bag. Incell hit to right field safely, and while Lawton was at the bat Levy tallied on a passed ball. Lawton struck to Robertson, who froze to it. Stein hit to first and was put out, but Incell crossed the plate. Bennett fanned. That was the last run made until the seventh inning, when Hayes scored for the Altas. He raised the ball to right field, and gradually worked from first around to third, McLaughlin struck out. Flint fanned, but ran for his base, and, Hardie overthrowing, Hayes tallied. Fisher also struck out, but got to first on a failure of Hardie's, and if he had not stopped to rest, but kept on for second and sacrificed himself if necessary, Flint could have got in. As it was, Incell got on his mettle, and fanned out the next two men—Robertson and Hilbert. He did wonderful pitching in that inning, causing five of the Altas to waft the air. No more runs were made, the Haverlys winning by a score of two to one, and an inning to spare. It was, taken altogether, one of the sharpest games played on the grounds, and was over in one hour and forty minutes. A number of brilliant plays were made. Fisher made a running catch in left field that was received with great favor by friends of the Altas, as it saved them, in the eighth inning, from seeing their opponents' score increased by at least one, and perhaps more runs. McLaughlin had the middle finger of the right hand pretty badly cut by a ball which he got his hand under as it struck the ground, but he don't mind a thing like that, and stuck to his work, shaking off the drops of blood as they collected. The annexed score shows who did the work, and baseball men will find it interesting:

The T. C. Walker left for San Francisco with her party of excursionists about 8:30 P. M., all apparently much pleased with their visit. The Altas and others, forming a large crowd, gathered to see them off, and hearty cheers were exchanged. As might have been expected, a few of the excursionists, probably of the hoodlum order, got intoxicated during the day, and used some bad language just before the boat left, but the public did not blame it upon the Haverlys.

The Brighton club has accepted the challenge of the Snowflakes to play for $100 a side.

The Snowflakes played a match game with the Independents, of Franklin, at Recreation Park yesterday morning, for $50 a side and the gate receipts, with this result:

Runs by innings—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

The game at Alameda yesterday between the Greenhood & Morans and the Pioneers resulted in favor of the latter by a score of 6 to 2.

At Agricultural Park this afternoon, commencing promptly at 2 o'clock, so that the game may be over in time for the regatta, the Altas will play the famed Knickerbockers, of the Central Park League, San Francisco, who are thought to be no more than able to cope with the Haverlys. The game will doubtless be a very fine one. The players will be: Knickerbockers—McDonald, c.; Bufford, l. f.; Shea, r. f.; Meegan, p.; Eldridge, c. f.; Murdock, s. s.; Daily, 1st b.; Everett, 3d b.; De Pangher, 2d b. Altas—Meagher, 3d b.; Hayes, s. s.; McLaughlin, c.; Flint, c. f.; Fisher, l. f.; Robertson, 2d b.; Ahern, 1st b.; Hilbert, r. f.; Barry, p.

The Pacific Sportsmen's Club held its monthly shoot yesterday at Agricultural Park, the result being as follows, showing 84⅔ per cent. of "kills:"

C. Flohr, 28 yards.....1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1—12

In the shoot-off of the ties, Flohr won with a clean score.

Three matches at clay pigeons followed. The first resulted in favor of Pedlar, with a score of 8 out of 10, Graves and C. Flohr dividing second and third money with a score of seven each. In the second Pedlar won first money with ten. Graves, Todd and Tebbets, who had tied on eight, shot off, and Todd beat the others, who tied. They shot off, and Tebbets won. In the last match, at five "birds," Tebbets won with a clean score.

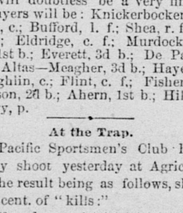
Anti-Riparian Club.—The Sacramento Anti-Riparian Irrigation Club was organized Saturday evening. P. E. Platt was chosen President, and G. W. Jackson, Secretary. The club list is quite extensive. The object of the movement has been so extensively published as to be well understood.

MALARIA.

HOW TO KEEP IT OFF.



A SIMPLE VEGETABLE REMEDY,

Yet powerful in its action to build up and restore the wasted energies and give tone and vigor to all its powers.

"I was attacked with Malarial Fever in the Summers of both 1882 and '83, and became very much reduced in flesh, and my friends thought I would die. I was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator, and commenced improving at once. Before taking three bottles of Regulator I was entirely well of Malarial poison, and have not had an attack of it since. My son had a severe attack of Chills, and I gave him a few doses of Regulator, which completely cured him."—JOHN T. CHAFFELL, Poplar Mount, Va.

BRIEF NOTES.

The pay car will pay off on the California and Oregon Railroad to-day.

The "Bunch of Keys" company went to San Francisco yesterday morning.

The Hussar Band will appear in the procession to-day in their handsome new military uniforms.

Nothing further has been learned by the Coroner concerning the identity of the two men recently found drowned.

To enable the butchers of the city to take part in the parade to-day, their markets will close at 8:30 this morning.

W. A. Caswell, of the International Hotel, has purchased a very handsome 'bus, which went into service yesterday.

The Stockton Band, Fifth Infantry Battalion, N. G. C., played concert music last evening at the Capital and Golden Eagle Hotels.

The highest and lowest temperature in Sacramento yesterday was 84° and 54°, with northerly and southerly winds, and clear weather.

The Fish Commissioners' steamer Governor Stoneman, lying near the bridge, has been decked out in the National colors in grand style.

In Department Two of the Superior Court Saturday the Jackson divorce case was continued for argument until next Friday at 10 A. M.

J. B. Haggin and John Mackay returned from the East Saturday, bringing twenty-two thoroughbred colts, recently purchased back there for Rancho del Paso.

Saturday morning one of the force of men engaged in repairing the streets found a gold watch in the grass on the west side of Fourth street, between K and L.

Six special officers will do patrol duty in the city to-day, and the regular members of the police force, in addition to the procession this morning, will be on duty to-night.

The Galt Gazette says: California is the only State in the Union that does not "legally" recognize Sunday, and Galt is the only town in the State that totally ignores the Sabbath.

A lady residing on L street attempted suicide with poison last night, but the physicians summoned saved her life. Domestic trouble and other matters are said to have been the cause of it.

Five street cars for the Hayes-street road, San Francisco, were turned out from the railroad shops in this city yesterday, and sent to San Francisco. They conclude the thirty-five ordered built here.

It is reported that Fred W. Stone, the foot-racer, well known in Sacramento, eloped from Pierre, Dakota, June 24th, with Miss Carrie McGibbons, a handsome young lady, whose family are well off.

Maud Silverstein, who was arrested in this city last Thursday on a telegraph message from Woodland, accusing her of the larceny of $30 at that place, has been tried for the offense over there and acquitted.

All the trains arriving here from the hills yesterday brought delegations of the original native sons and daughters of the golden West, to enjoy the Fourth. A few of them were lodged in the station house, drunk, before noon.

On Saturday two boys were playing at Third and J streets, when one dodged behind the corner of a building, and, when his companion came along, by way of joke, suddenly reached out his hand and fired a small pistol, burning the other boy's face quite severely.

Sacramentans who attended the celebration at Newcastle on Saturday report having had a pleasant time. The little town was full of patriotic people, and the procession and literary exercises are spoken of with much commendation. Elwood Bruner, of this city, delivered the oration.

The following is announced by Acting Adjutant-General Perrie Kewen as the percentage of attendance at drill and company membership of the First Artillery Regiment for the month of May: Company A, 58—67; B, 58—64; C, 67—70; E, 58—67; F, 61—60; G, 55—62. Total, 61—390.

There was a large attendance yesterday upon the funeral of Bernard Doherty, the baggageman of one of the Reno trains who was fatally injured at Colfax on Thursday. Railroad men and other friends came from various points to show the esteem in which they held him.

Fine specimens of "vegetable marrow squash," probably the only thing of the kind in the city, grown in the yard of H. W. Rivett, Twelfth and O streets, were shown at this office Saturday. The seed was brought from England. They are very large squash, and entirely free from fiber and woody substance.

George Nichols, recently employed in a restaurant, was arrested on Saturday by Chief Dillman and officer Sullivan for passing off a $10 counterfeit note for good money in Chris Dwyer's saloon, Second and L streets, where he had called the crowd up and ran a bill of $1 60. He was found, on examination at the station house, to have two packs of marked cards in his possession.

A man named James Backus, a recent arrival from San Francisco, who had been on a spree Saturday night, was seized with an epileptic fit at Fifth and I streets about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. The City Physician was called to attend him, and he was taken to the station-house by officer Sullivan to be further looked after. He was all right a few hours later, but was held to sober up thoroughly.

A man from Woodland stepped into the Delta Saloon, Sixth and I streets, about 11 o'clock Friday night, and complained that a few minutes previously he had been knocked down on the opposite corner by two men who had made acquaintance with him near Second and K streets, and volunteered to "show him the elephant." They attempted to examine his pockets, but when he resisted they ran away.

Property-owners on the business streets would do well to look out for combustible matter underneath sidewalks to-day. Most of the Fourth of July fires are caused by fire-crackers or lighted tapers falling through gratings in walks and setting fire to material underneath. One merchant on K street has boarded over his gratings as a measure of precaution. Attention should be given to this matter this morning, and it would be well to give premises a good wetting.

Arrests.—The following arrests were made Saturday and yesterday: Tom O'Brien, by officer Agner, for being drunk; Wm. Anderson, by the same officer, for exposure of person; Anita Para, by officer Yager, for exhibiting; Mary McCarty, by officers McCormack and Farrell, for being drunk; Jesse Waddle, by the same officers, for carrying concealed weapons; Jim Murphy, by officers Kent, Rider and Yager, for battery; Henry Barkus, by officer Farrell, for being drunk; Tom Consolation, by Deputy Constable Martin, for disturbing the peace; Ah Taw, Ah Jap and Ah Him, by officers Leavy and Yager, for misdemeanor (playing ball in the street); Geo. Nichols, by officer Sullivan, for embezzlement; Oliver Sauve, by officer Agner, for disturbing the peace.

A Serious Accident.—About a week ago George Woodburn was out hunting on the Grant with a friend. He shot and wounded a rabbit, which his companion chased and captured. He threw the rabbit into Woodburn's lap. One of the legs of the animal had been broken, and a sharp piece of bone protruded. This penetrated the inner side of Woodburn's thigh to the depth of an inch and came near severing the main artery of the leg. The wound bled profusely. After a day or two's rest, he went to work, his leg began to swell, and yesterday he took to his bed, there being unmistakable evidence of an aneurism of the main artery. His condition is considered very serious, and may result in the loss of his leg.

Auction Sale.—W. H. Sherburn will sell at auction at 10 A. M. to-morrow, at the store 309 K street, an invoice of tobacco, cigars, stationery, books, cutlery, playing cards, Yankee notions, etc. Also overalls, shirts, handkerchiefs, half-hose, furnishing goods, etc. Goods now on exhibition.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Close of the Session of the General Executive Board.

[By Telegraph.]

NEW YORK, July 3d.—The General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor finished their labors here to-day, and the members left for home. Afterward Powderly said: "It is the intention of the Board to address a letter to Superintendent Murray and request him to furnish information about the action of Captain McCollough. We have learned that Cooper Union Hall has been frequently rented to secret societies without the presence of policemen. We wish to know, therefore, whether Captain McCollough received an order from a higher authority to have policemen present. I see by the papers that Captain McCollough classes the Knights of Labor with anarchists and communists. I have never at any time expressed, nor will there be found in any of my public speeches or letters or in the work of the Order anything that could be construed as savoring of the doctrine of either anarchists or communists. I consider his interference in our meeting and the remark of Captain McCollough a direct insult, first to the workingmen of New York and second to the workingmen of the United States. This makes the matter of national importance, and this must be righted at once."

The Knights of Labor here are in danger of losing ground with some of the more important trades. The New York Associated Jewelers, with a membership of 1,000 or more, refused by a decided majority to join the former organization. Some of the leading men of the Association take the ground that the Knights are not a bona fide labor organization. It is also reported that there is a strong feeling in the German Shoemakers' Union, No. 1, numbering 500 or more, in favor of maintaining their independence, though declaring their sympathies in favor of the purposes which the Knights have in view, so far as they are designed to promote the interests of the working class. There is the latent feeling that the Knights are disposed to exercise arbitrary powers, and that as things are going at present it is the part of wisdom on the part of the Trades Unions for the time being to preserve their autonomy. The bad management of the Third-avenue railroad strike, under the auspices of the Knights, tended more than anything else to make the Trades Unions cautious about new alliances.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive agents. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never failing.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one IMPROVED INHALER, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.

These tracts are for sale at from $10 to $20 per acre, a price less than the cost of clearing ordinary foothill lands.

This Colony is in the warm Citrus Belt of the Foothills, and will grow Alfalfa, all kinds of Vegetables, Tree Fruits; Table, Wine and Raisin Grapes; Oranges, Olives, Lemons, Figs and Almonds. With this soil, climate and water the Colonist can support his family after the first 90 days. Four years' time will give an income of from $2,000 to $4,000 per annum.

Several 20-acre tracts have already been sold, and to insure a more complete development not more than 40 acres will be sold to one person.

THE IRON-WORKERS.

Reply to the Recent Letter from the Union Iron Works Company.

We published a few days since a letter from the Union Iron Works Company, of San Francisco, to the striking workmen from the company's shops. The Iron Trade's Council of Workingmen have now made the following reply—but which is not addressed, as will be seen, to the Union Iron Works Company:

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2, 1886.

To the Wageworkers of San Francisco—FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS: The workmen at the Union Iron Works are again in trouble. After twenty-five years of the Government's so-called protection, the mechanics of our land have been convinced that they have been systematically robbed by manufacturers and employers, who (through free immigration and their importation of contract laborers from all parts of the earth) have forced down the price of labor in Eastern States until there seems to be no limit to its degradation, and thereby have pocketed the entire profits of the tariff, which was intended to benefit all alike. As a consequence of this knowledge and sad experience, the wageworkers of our land are now making an effort to protect themselves by organization, which, wherever tried, has proved to be the best and only true protection that labor can obtain. The workmen of San Francisco, realizing the fact that what has been done by manufacturers in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania will also be done here if some effort is not made to put a check upon their greed, have formed themselves into Trades Unions for mutual aid and protection. Many of these new societies, being composed of men who are inexperienced, have made mistakes, which they will no doubt profit by in the future. It is not necessary for us to worry you with a lengthy account of the causes which have led up to the present troubles at the Union Iron Works. You have been made acquainted with the subject through the daily press, and by some it has been highly colored in favor of the firm and against the workman. In substance it is as follows:

Some time ago a certain person came to this coast from abroad, and was admitted to membership in the Shipwrights' Union. Instead of being grateful to its members, and contributing his mite to the peace and prosperity of those who had made him welcome, he at once set to work to give them trouble. The first offense, it is stated, was to take sub-contracts, a system that a few years ago had reduced the cabinetmakers of this city to such a condition that many of them could not make more than $6 per week, and they had to furnish their own tools. His society called him to account for it, and he employed a lawyer and took the case into Court, causing the society considerable loss of time and money. Still they did not suspend him. On another occasion he promised some of the shipwrights who were at work at night on some important job that the Union Iron Works Company would pay them their usual prices for night work, and when they were paid for their labor they did not receive the amount agreed upon. In this the men did not blame the company, but their brother members, who had charge of the work. On still another occasion, it is stated that after working faithfully on a contract for the Union Iron Works Company, he had not made mechanic's wages, and that one of the firm had presented him with $25 to reimburse him for his loss. This circumstance he related in the Shipwrights' Union. This man, with a few others, seeing, as they thought, an opportunity to better their condition, temporarily at least, if they would break away from the restraint of the Union to which they belonged, sent in their resignations, and with a few handy men, have formed a society of their own and are doing the work formerly done by boilermakers. They also work ten hours per day instead of nine, which is the standard of the Shipwrights' Union. All this they claim to have done in the interest of iron shipbuilding on this coast.

After calling the attention of the Federation to the trouble, and that body having failed to effect a settlement, the boilermakers refused to work with these men, and struck work about one month ago. The other trades in the Federation, after making an effort to arrange a settlement of the trouble, which resulted in a failure, ordered their men out also. A few days after the men were out, it was thought that if a Committee on Arbitration was appointed there might be a settlement of the trouble that would satisfy both parties. The suggestion was acted upon and the committee was appointed and instructed to send a communication to the managers of the Union Iron Works, notifying them that they were willing to abitrate the matter in dispute. The answer to our communication came on last Tuesday and was published in the evening and morning papers. At present the case stands in this condition: The Federation, knowing that the present strike is unpopular, and knowing that any fair minded man would be most likely to decide some important point against it, yet, for the sake of a settlement, it was willing to present its case in the best form that a committee of five humble mechanics could present it, and submit to the decision of any fair-minded man that might be agreed upon. Under existing circumstances those who knew how the case stood felt sure that it was practically a surrendering of many important points, which they did not hope to have decided in their favor, and yet Mr. Dickie, on behalf of the firm, has spurned the offer in whole and in part, and hurled his reply broadcast to the world through the press.

We now appeal to the same public opinion and through the same medium—the press—which, with few exceptions, has treated us well. Many of our best and most experienced members are willing to admit that the boilermakers acted unwisely in striking without the authority of the Federation, and that later the Federation itself did not act with becoming wisdom and prudence. However this may be, the reply of Mr. Dickie should, and it has silenced all comment on the wisdom of our past action. This firm thinks more of these few rebellious workmen that have left their former societies and set up shop for themselves than it does for all the other men in its employ that are faithful to their pledges and true to their society. We never knew the firm in question to sacrifice so much for a principle before. Verily, our world is growing better. By the way, fellow-workmen, if our memory serves us right, some years ago a number of the States in the American Union believing that they had the constitutional right to secede, set up a Government of their own. Many of our good people then called the seceders rebels, and plunged the nation into a four years' war for the preservation of the Union. We expect to settle this little difficulty in less than half the time and propose that it will not cost one drop of blood. We will also remind the Union Iron Works Company that a certain neighboring nation, at the time of the late unpleasantness above referred to, had to pay something like $15,000,000 for its sympathy with secession.

The question of the hour is: Shall the unions of this city be crushed out of existence and every vestige of protection to labor cease? The reply of this firm does not even give the assurance that if the men are willing to return in a body they would be re-employed. Such a surrender as they propose cannot be thought of even for a moment. "Things ill begun make strong themselves by ills." Our Arbitration Committee has been discharged, and a Committee on Conference appointed instead. Each Union in the Iron Trades Federation is requested to levy an assessment on members that are at work, and appoint a committee to distribute the money so collected among those of their members affected by the strike, and also those that might through want of bread be induced to go to work in the shops. All the unions represented in the general Federation of Trades are also hereby called upon to levy small weekly assessments, and turn the money over to our Finance Committee, taking a receipt for the same. Our Finance Committee will in turn divide the money so collected equally among the various unions affected by this strike for distribution among the men that are out. Remember that if we are crushed your turn will come next. We consider that any man or set of men that will go to work in these workshops until this trouble is settled are utterly void of manly principle, and we call upon all good citizens to stay away from the works. If you are in need of bread make it known to your fellow-workers, and you will not be allowed to suffer. And now to our own men that are out on strike: We charge you above all things to keep the peace, violate no law of the land and time will bring all things right.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Iron Trades Council.
